

Our Father

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done, on earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Luke 7.1-17

¹Now when He had ended all His sayings in the audience of the people, He entered into Capernaum.

²And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick and ready to die.

³And when he heard of Jesus, he sent the elders of the Jews unto Him, beseeching Him that He would come and heal his servant.

⁴And when they came to Jesus they besought Him earnestly, saying that the one for whom He should do this was worthy,

⁵"for he loved our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue."

⁶And Jesus went with them. And when He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying unto Him, "Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that Thou shouldst enter under my roof.

⁷Therefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto Thee. But say the word, and my servant shall be healed.

⁸For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers. And I say unto one, 'Go', and he goeth; and to another, 'Come,' and he cometh; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he doeth it."

⁹When Jesus heard these things, He marvelled at him, and turned about and said unto the people who followed Him, "I say unto you, I have not found so great a faith, no, not in Israel."

¹⁰And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole who had been sick.

¹¹And it came to pass the day after, that He went into a city called Nain; and many of His disciples went with Him, and many people.

¹²Now when He came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And many people of the city were with her.

¹³And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said unto her, "Weep not."

¹⁴And He came and touched the bier and those who bore him stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say unto thee, arise."

¹⁵And he that was dead sat up and began to speak. And He delivered him to his mother.

¹⁶And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet is risen up among us"; and, "God hath visited His people."

¹⁷And this report of Him went forth throughout all Judea and throughout all the region round about.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen, Amen.
